

Contact Us

Make a difference - Join Today

online trainings site. If you take the course/s independently, please send us your certification so we can keep your profile up-to-date. (See calendar for currently scheduled trainings or on-line.)

- Flu Clinic Training – Required annually for nurses that wish to participate in Flu Clinics. Alternatively, Flu Clinic On-line Training found on DE TRAIN is available.
- CPR/AED
 - Provided in class setting, once yearly per county. If you have already taken CPR/AED and/or BLS certification trainings, please send a copy of your certificate to DMRC. (See calendar for currently scheduled trainings.)
- Shelter 101/201 Training
 - Required for medical and non-medical volunteers that wish to participate at shelters. Provided annually in class setting. (See calendar for currently scheduled trainings. Shelter Tech Training is now available for non-medical volunteers to augment the Shelter 101/201 training, see below for details.)
- Shelter Tech Training – Required for non-medical volunteers to participate in shelters. Provided annually in class setting. Requirements:
 - Shelter Tech Prerequisite On-line Training – Click to take – View prior to attending Shelter Tech Training.
 - Shelter Tech Prerequisite Training Worksheet
 - Shelter Tech Prerequisite Completion Survey
 - Shelter Tech Training – Training provided in a class room setting. (See calendar for currently scheduled trainings.)

Suggested Trainings

Select training name for details. See calendar for currently scheduled trainings.

- Psychological First Aid – Required for DE-BEST volunteers.
- This training may be found online and with other agencies. One agency's course can be found on NCTSN website. If you have taken it, please send us your certificate so that we may update your account.
- Another version may be taken online through the Minnesota Department of Health. Please click here for more information.
- John Hopkins University has a free training (Click here).

